The Emmy Award-winning show, starring Queen Latifah, Mary J Blige, David Alan Grier, Ne-Yo, Elijah Kelly, Uzo Aduba, Amber Riley, Common, Stephanie Mills, Shanice Williams, was originally broadcast live in 2015. The Wiz has music and lyric by Charlie Small, Timothy Grahnenreed, Harold Wheeler, George Faison and Luther Vandross, with a book by William F Brown. It was adapted for the big screen in 1978 starring Diana Ross as Dorothy. Based on L Frank Baum's The Wonderful Wizard of Oz , the piece follows Dorothy as she is whisked away to the land of Oz where she encounters a cavalcade of whacky characters. The Wiz will be available from 7pm BST on Friday 12 June for 48 hours,

...from the Montgomery Literary Festival. The Monty Lit Fest is going virtual this year with a range of events available online on 12 and 13 June. Find out more and register at <https://montylitfest.com>

...from WhatsOnStage. First look photos and a release date have been revealed for the brand new TV adaptation of Alan Bennett's Talking Heads. The series, commissioned by controller of BBC Drama Piers Wenger, will premiere from 9pm on Tuesday 23 June with casts including Jodie Comer, Lesley Manville, Imelda Staunton, Tamsin Greig, Martin Freeman, Lucian Msmati and more. All episodes will be available on BBC iPlayer from that date.

All of the films were shot with casts and crews socially distancing, with a full list of those involved below. The monologues were first broadcast for television in 1988 and 1998, with the likes of Julie Walters, Maggie Smith and Patricia Routledge attached.

...and...A number of movie musicals have been added to BBC iPlayer to perk up viewers as venues remain shut and large-scale live performances remain impossible. The films come predominantly from the Golden Age of Hollywood – we've rounded them up below:

Carmen Jones (1954). Based on the stage show that used the music of Georges Bizet
 Carousel (1956). Rodgers and Hammerstein's iconic musical Top Hat (1935). Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers are the go-to for musical movies and Top Hat, featuring music and lyrics by Irving Berlin, may be one of their finest.

Carefree (1938). The perfect pairing of Astaire and Rogers continues with this comedy, which also features the work of Berlin.

The Gay Divorcee (1934). Based on Dwight Taylor's 1932 musical of the same name (but controversially leaving out a lot of Cole Porter's original tunes) this was another of the ten movies Astaire and Rogers did together.

Guys and Dolls (1955). Main man Marlon Brando is joined by Jean Simmons, Frank Sinatra, and Vivian Blaine Paint Your Wagon (1969). The 1969 film version has a cast including Lee Marvin and Clint Eastwood.

The Sky's the Limit (1943). Joan Leslie and Astaire star in the 1943 film.

...from Kirsty Williams. Yesterday the Chief Dental Officer for Wales issued a statement about dentistry during the COVID-19 crisis. Dentists in Wales have remained open for routine care throughout the lockdown. In Powys the urgent dental care centres are in Brecon and Newtown and information can be found on Powys Teaching Health Board's website here:

<http://www.powysthb.wales.nhs.uk/news/52341>. The CDO said yesterday that the return of full dental services will be gradual and dental services will restart through three phases.

Phase one will begin from 1st July and will see urgent dental centres and dental practices introducing more treatments. In addition a full range of care, including fillings, will be available at some local dental practices to everyone who urgently needs them and has experienced problems during lockdown. Full details of the statement and the further two phases can be found here: <https://gov.wales/dentistry-and-coronavirus-statement-chief-dental-officer-wales> I am aware that there are wider issues with access to dental treatment in some parts of the constituency and I will continue to work with Powys THB to secure more dentists for mid Wales.
